The Agent has produced copies of some old documents to show that the previous Swamies travelled both in the Mysore State and in British India. Some of these Copies which relate to orders issued from the Mysore State are noted below:—

81

A Copy of Hukum of Raktakshi Samvatsara from Kelodi Basappa Nayk stating that Ramachandrappa Matt is entitled to Sweta chatri and Makara Torana Bridge, and that Honnavalli and other ordinary Matts Cannot lay claim to these insignia.

41

A Copy of Sri Patrika of Krishnappa, late Tahsildar of Nagarakatapur Taluk addressed to the then Swami of the Matt stating that according to some "Sasanas", this Matt is entitled by Manual & the use of is one of Smartha persuasion and enjoys extensive inam lands mentd on pages 18 to 29 of the Quit rent register of the Nagar Taluk. The mattha has no cash grant from Govt. The present Swamijalu's succession to the High-Priestship of the mattha was sanctd in August 1898 (Vide mt. 92 of 98-99). The present Swamijalu does not seem to have travelled at all in the Mysore State, and his predecessor seems to have restricted his travels in a great measure to Coorg, Canara neighbouring districts places; the last time he seems to have obtained a Parwana Rahendari to travel through the Nagar Taluk being in Nov 1836 when it was only in the Nagar Taluk & the Rahendari was vested by the Agent to Govt in Mysore of that Taluk.

According to the Secretariat compilation of Boundaries printable to the Malad Inspector, this Swamijalu is entitled to the following villages:—

1. Palangere.
2. Swetachatri
3. Abbaya channa
4. Makara torana
5. Hattyal dinty

Seal:—Chandramaulih—the Moon-crested (Siva.)

Adoration to the prosperous Ganês'a! Hail!

Adored be Sambhu, beauteous with moon-disc resembling Châmara kissing his lofty head, the original foundation pillar of the city of the three worlds!

When Vîra Pratâpa dêva Mahârâya, the most prosperous, the great king of kings and the most valorous is reigning most justly over all the world from Vijayanagara (his capital); on the new moon day of the dark half of the month of Mâkha of the (Cyclic) year Sukla current after Saka year 1311*, the holy Vidyâ anya who comes in the line of Surêsvarâchârya who was the disciple of Srî Sankarâchârya who (again) was the respectful disciple of the most holy (Gôvinda) Bhagavatpada who was the chief sage of all the holy *Paramahamsa parivrâjakâchârya*s† living in the sees of Bhôgavarddhanavâla‡, and who owes his spiritual life to the blessings of the lotus hands of the sage Krishnatîrtha who lived in Rishyasringapura§ the holy Vidyâranya lays in distinct language the following privileges and to that effect makes the following copper-plate grant to Chitbôdhabhârati who is the disciple of Srîrâmachandrabhârati; who is the head of Gôkarna Raghôttamamatha‖ living in the see of Bhôganarddhanavâla and who is the chief of the Paramahamsaparivrâjaka order of sages.

* Saka 1311 is A.D 1389. Harihara II reigned between 1379 and 1401 A D; and after him came his son Dêva Râya; but this grant being dated in 1389 A D. and in Dêva Râya's reign either makes that king to have commenced his reign earlier or the grant must have been made when he had been recognised as a prince and heir-apparent to the throne

† The fourth and the highest stage of Sanyâsi-hood, the first three being Kutîchaka, Bahûduka and Hamsa.

‡ Name of all the sees in the Southern India.

§ A hermitage of that name on the banks of the Tungabhadrâ where the present monastery of Pampa is situated.

‖ A mat [illegible] that name in Gôkar[illegible]ey.

As you are now in possession of the privileges formerly owned by Chitbôdhanâcharya alias Jyêshtavidyâranya which are the enquiry into the spiritual conduct of the Brâhmans called the Haiva Drâvidas of the Haiva-Drâvida country; the laying down of soothing rites when such conduct is deviated, the priority in receiving the first pûjâ (worship) and the enjoyment of lands given for the exercise of such powers in addition to the duty of being the spiritual teacher to the Gôkarna Mandala (country), and as both these privileges coincide, we give you in the holy presence of Mahâbatêsvara and in the presence of the people of several countries the privileges* also of a simhâsana (throne), the kiri a —(crown); ândôlika—palankin, white umbrella, double chamara—chouries, Makara-tôrana ensigns, fans, day torches, and flags of yellow, brown and other colours; cymbals, sankha, (conches for blowing in) disc—chakra, and other musical instruments May you enjoy during the existence of the sun and moon, and transmit to your disciples who succeed you to this seat, the throne, crown, palankin, white umbrella, double chamaras, makara-torana ensigns, fans (vyajana), day torches, flags of yellow, brown and other colours and cymbals conches, disc, and other musical instruments, and may you continue your circuits throughout the four directions, receiving the first reverence, superintending the spiritual conduct of the Haiva Brâhmans of the Haiva-dêsa (country), recommending to them the soothing rites, receiving from them the first pûjâ, and retaining the spiritual headship of the Gokarna Mandala, &c Thus this is the grant of privileges. Srî.

* These are generally the privileges of royalty here specially allowed to a spiritual head of a see.

Enclosure B.

Adoration to the Lord of the Ganas—Ganesa

Adored be Sambhu, beauteous with moon-disc resembling Chamara kissing his lofty head, the original foundation pillar of the city of the three worlds!

When Vîra Pratâpa Immadîdêvarâya, the most prosperous, the great king of kings, the most valorous, the most supreme of kings is reigning most justly over all the world from his victorious capitals in all the countries, on the auspicious occasion of the transit of the sun into the Kanya, of the Rêvatî asterism and of Thursday the second lunar day of the Krishna Bhâdrapad of the cyclic year, Svabhânu current after Saka* year 1386 the king Immadi Deva Mahârâja acknowledging his spiritual allegiance to the holy Râghavêsvara Bhâratî who comes in the line of Vidyanandachârya who was the disciple of Suresvarâchârya—who again was the disciple of Sankarâchârya the most respectful disciple of the most holy Govinda Bhagavatpâda who was the chief sage of all the holy Parumahamsa parivrâjakâchâryas, who lives in the city of Bhôgavaddhanavâlapura, who is the worshipper of the lotus feet of the holy Ramachandra who owed his spiritual life to the blessings of the lotus hands of the sage Sri Chitbodhabhâratî who lived in *Satasringa pura, who is the spiritual head of Gokarnamatha and who is the spiritual head of Raghûttama matha—the king Immadêvarâya acknowledging his allegiance to the holy Raghavêsvara makes the following grant in this copper-plate

* Saka 1386 is A D 1464

*The fabled hermitage of a sage of that name in which the matham (monastary) is situated in Gôkarna

As, in former times, the holy Vidyaranya has given to your predecessor—the holy Chitbodhabhâratî the head of the Gokarnamatha—in the sacred presence of Mahâbalêsvara the privileges, of a throne, crown, ândolika, white umbrella, double chamara, malara-torana ensigns, fans, day-torches, and flags of yellow, brown and other colours, cymbals, sankha-conches—disc, and other musical instruments, we, in addition to those already given, give to you now in the most holy presence of Srî Virûpakshadêva two torches of five flames in each, and the privilege of adorning with five Kalasas, &c, the top of your andolika

May you enjoy during the existence of the sun and moon and transmit to your disciples the privilege of the two torches with five flames in each and the privilege of adorning with five Kalasas, &c, the top of your palankins and continue your circuits with fame in the four directions

Thus this is the grant of privileges

This copperplate grant was engraved by the engraver Virannachâri!

Enclosure C.

The King Krishnarâya Udaiyâr Avargal sends this written order to all the Amildârs and Khillêdârs in his dominions, on Wednesday, the 7th lunar day of the dark half of the month of Pushya of the Cyclic year Vikriti.

As Srî Râmachandra Bhâratî Svâmigal Avargal of Râmachandrapuram is going on his spiritual pilgrimage with all his usual paraphernalia, as is the custom from time immemorial, to visit the assemblage of his disciples in several places, may you behave yourselves in such a way that there shall be no unnecessary obstructions (in his sacred pilgrimage).

(Signed) APPAJI RAU,
Huzûr Munshi.

Enclosure D.

May there be the favor of Râma !

The Dewan Srî Venkatayya Râjâ Avargal sends this written order to all Amildârs and Khillêdârs of the state on the 7th lunar day of the dark half of the month of Pushya of the Cyclic year Vikriti.

As Srî Ramachandra Bhâratî Svâmigal Avargal of Râmachandra Puram Matham is in receipt of a royal order that when his holiness, is going on his spiritual pilgrimage with all his usual paraphernalia, as is the custom from time immemorial, to visit the assemblage of his disciples in several places you should behave yourselves in such a way as there shall be no kind of obstructions, may you behave yourselves in such a manner that there shall be no kind of obstruction when his holiness is thus visiting the assemblage of his disciples with all his usual paraphernalia which are allowed to him from time immemorial

9th January 1831 (Signed) BALAJI RAU,
Munshi.

And,

Further you shall behave in such a way that there shall be no kind of obstruction whatever when his holiness is conducting his enquiries into the spiritual observances of his disciples and the moral conduct of women who have been turned out of caste and reclaiming these into his see

Hail to Rama !
